

ISDA SYSTEMATIC FLOW CHART

ISDA acts as a brokerage to 'put it all together' for you , ultimately you can have a Cert 4 in Sports Coaching , Cert 4 in Personal training , Be Legally Insured in Personal training & Sports Coaching specializing in Martial Arts . The Bonus is that you can RPL Sports Coaching against Personal Training at a minimal fee .

In the meantime your Martial Arts Certification is separate and an 'internal' recognition within your own school , Master or System, however is not 'recognized' by the fitness Industry or the Australian Government , However you should aim as a professional, to parallel these qualifications so that at least the sports coaching certification sits alongside any martial art certification therefore making you Government Recognized and Legally Insurable irrespective of what martial arts you do .
